

The current FCC laws governing media ownership in the USA do not sufficiently protect the interests of the people. I've worked in media marketing for 5 years, and am scared for the future. Please stop the bleeding. Media conglomerations are detrimental to free speech, independent art, and American society as a whole.